THE BIG HOUSE HUB

GAME DAY. SORTED.

A little planning. More time for football.

At home or heading to the game: pick what fits your Saturday.
Use what you already have. Bring your crew. Bring your take.

BEFORE KICKOFF

- [ ] Confirm kickoff time and where to watch using the current official schedule.
- [ ] Charge your phone and any power bank you already use.
- [ ] Agree on the plan with your crew: time, place and who is bringing what.
- [ ] Check the weather if any part of your day is outside.

WATCHING AT HOME

- [ ] Test the TV, stream and sound before everyone arrives.
- [ ] Set up seats so everyone can see the screen.
- [ ] Put drinks, serving supplies and cleanup bags within reach.
- [ ] Choose one thing you want to watch: protection, early downs or finishing drives.
- [ ] Keep a pen or phone note handy for your first-half take.

HEADING TO THE GAME

- [ ] Open your mobile tickets and follow the ticket provider's current instructions.
- [ ] Bring the ID, payment method and essentials you need.
- [ ] Read the venue's current bag and permitted-item rules before packing.
- [ ] Plan transport, parking and your route home before leaving.
- [ ] Dress for the forecast and plan a meeting spot if your group separates.

AFTER THE FINAL WHISTLE

- [ ] Check your seat or gathering space for belongings and pick up your trash.
- [ ] Stick to your safe ride-home plan.
- [ ] Share your own photo or reaction with the Hub community.
- [ ] Name your standout and one thing Michigan can improve. Keep it respectful.

KICKOFF / WATCH TIME _____

WATCHING WITH / MEETING SPOT _____

MY ONE THING TO WATCH _____

Independent fan planning aid. Check current official schedules, ticket instructions, venue rules and weather before traveling. Not affiliated with the University of Michigan.